

THE 10th GATE

"Audaces Fortuna Iuvat ... Fortune Favors The Bold"

Welcome to the 10th GATE, the home of Saturn and Capricorn. Found here is Fate and the acceptance of spiritual destiny, the power and potency of crystals, the mysterious ways of time and the three fold etheric essence of the Capricornus. Do not enter this Gate with fear or trepidation lest you miss its message.

SELECTIONS: Spiritual Destiny, Crystals and the Higher Realms, Principles of Time, Capricornus.

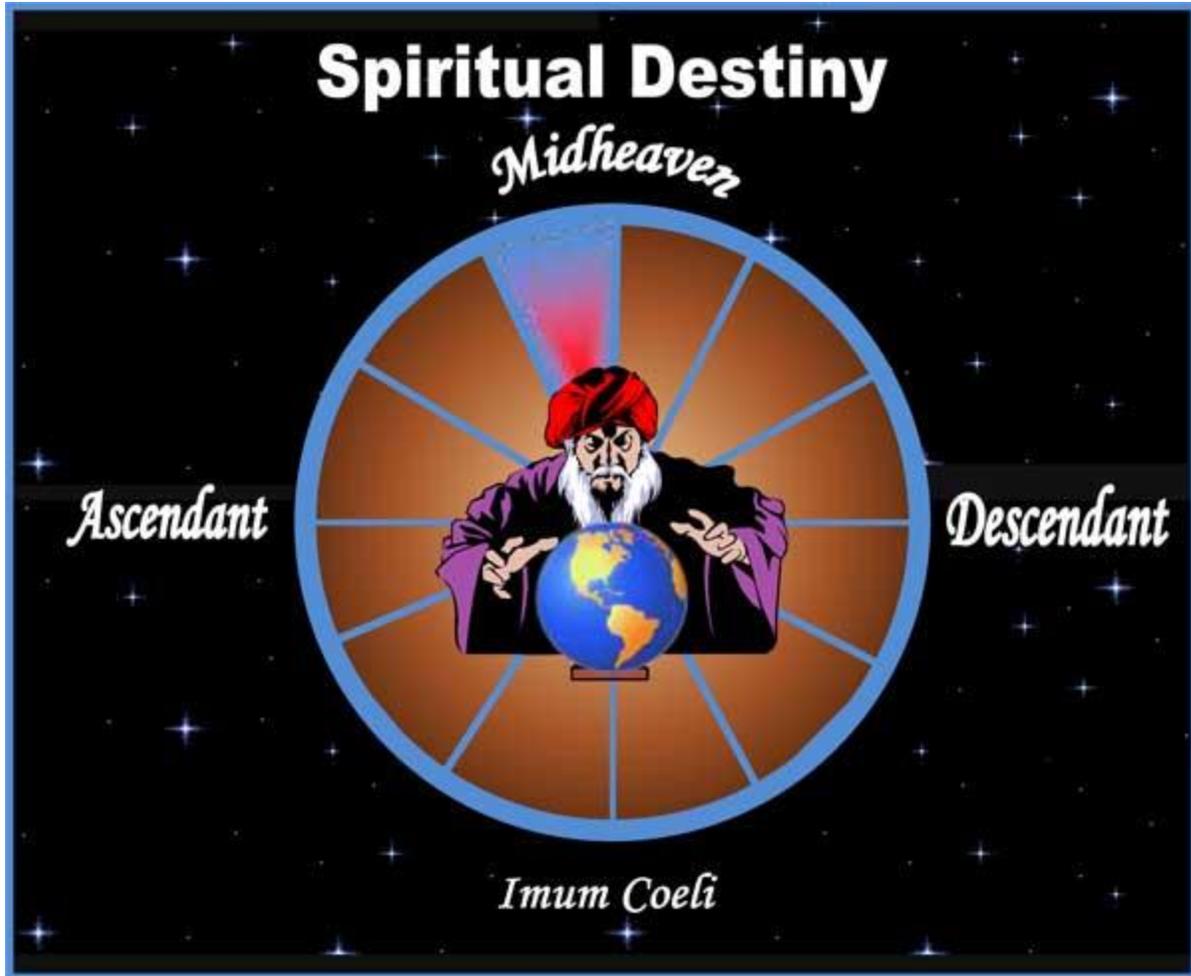

SPIRITUAL DESTINY

What is the Plan?

How will you consciously enforce the plan of the Universe in your life and responsibly seize opportunities for spiritual advancement? The Midheaven is the most elevated point in a Natus. It is the pinnacle of Capricorn's' mountain - the ultimate achievement of desires and worldly designs in mundane astrology. Yet the Soul has a goal as well and it is removed from the accomplishment of worldly acclamation.

What is this path and how is it defined?

Look at the sign occupying the 10th House Cusp demarcating the Midheaven in your chart for the answer. Also consider any intercepted sign in the 10th House for additional information.

~ARIES on the Midheaven~

This is a house of exaltation for the sign of Aries, the Alpha sign. It is a place of power for the individual who houses this 10th House energy. Yet within its initiating essence and striving for power in mundane reality, the Soul desires to promote human values over material ambition. What is honorable shapes human destiny. Wrongdoings will be exposed and reversals of fortune and reputation will be evident when the Soul's path is not being followed. The path may be lonely, as both the human and spiritual essences need to function with autonomy. The individual knows on the inner most levels that the ultimate goal can only be reached by the Self with no assistance but rather with cooperation. Discriminating awareness is the blessing of the Arien essence concerning the destiny path. This essence has evolved elementally from the mutable of waters of Pisces to the cardinal fires of Arien initiation. Emotional impressionability has transitioned to assertive expression of “being.” Receptivity to impressions remains but is redirected energetically out into the world. Creatively, this Soul must avoid falling back on the old patterns that were successful in lives past because they simply are not suitable this time for further growth. Once this awareness has been recognized, fulfillment of Destiny and Collective Contribution can be realized. This is the lifetime to create the new.

~TAURUS on the Midheaven~

In the mundane chart, this placement seeks outward displays of status and power but the spiritual ambition of those with Taurus on the Midheaven is in actuality a highly alchemical process which results in a unique expression. The Soul is cognizant of the fact that it is a part of Divine Creation so the spiritual essence must be raised in consciousness to become aligned with Universal Law which demands that the “whole” be served instead of the “Self.” Evolving further and elementally from the fire of Aries, this essence undergoes a shift in awareness from both mundane and spiritual glamour and grows into a deeper understanding Collective Unity. Here is where the wisdom lies and benevolence for the world ensues. A condition of this path is drawn for the Scorpionic polarity which demands an exploration into the nether regions of birth, life and death and security is gleaned from that knowledge and understanding which cannot be found in the materialism of the mundane. Loss of happiness associated with possessions and loss of comfort from “status” will become apparent when the path of the Soul is not followed. For the alchemy to take place, the ego consciousness must grasp the difference between personal human desire and Divine Will which reveals itself through the Collective Mind. The result is inspiring and the Soul essence will carry the individual to unique expression of final alchemical Unity and a new recognition of the true nature of all things.

~GEMINI on the Midheaven~

The Mercurial theme of duality is prominent, as the Soul Path of contemplative design must be distinguished from the mundane path of mental activity aimed at achievement of goals. Difficult to resist, the Gemini energy easily influences others through use of dialog and logic that sparkles like diamonds. Yet these dissertations fall short on the Soul level because they are devoid of feeling and concern for the values and thoughts of others. Those who are coerced by the literal glamour and glitz of verbal diatribe find out that diamonds also cut. The mundane Gemini path can be strewn with victims which eventually becomes the work of the Soul who must “clean up the act” when enlightenment throws the spotlight on a veritable human mess that has occurred due to constant changes of direction. The essence has a duty to evolve from Taurus groundedness and fixed perception to a new objectivity based on appreciation of the value of change rather than a flippant ride on the merry-go-round of testing. Within the process oriented choices, the Soul at one point connects with the Divine through recognition and understanding of personal karma which draws the essence into higher consciousness and Collective Unity. “I think therefore I am BUT so are they” is the result. When the Soul Path is avoided or neglected, those with this placement will be scheming, selfish, cold and dishonest in an effort to get what they want because ambition has taken precedence over principle. This is when the Gemini brilliance fades to a flicker.

~CANCER on the Midheaven~

Conscious awareness is the concern of the Soul direction when Cancer signifies the path of spiritual destiny. Each life experience offers greater self-awareness as each obstacle is surmounted. In the watery domain the truth seeps in and finds its own level as the inner “being” is brought to knowledge and then to wisdom. Trusting personal discernment and intuition is key as each tide turns. The spirit must be in flow and flux but it also must create that flow and learn to navigate the flux. The essence of Cardinal Cancer is moving out of the elemental airy fixations of Gemini. The spirit quickly learns that it cannot be “still” in the water – it must move. The mind and body pour their essence into activities but the spirit guided by the Soul is using its capacity to respond. Yet, if there is too much “suiting” to circumstances, the creative flow is lost. Cognizance of “change” should be engaged when it is a choice based upon personal judgment. It is important that human awareness of individuality be respected and appreciated in both the self and others. Consideration is the theme of this Soul Path and destiny. When the path is not followed, frustration need for approval and unhealthy attachments occur. On the mundane level, issues regarding direction in life will elicit heightened feelings and emotions that are too easily exposed and not likely to be fruitful. On the Collective level there is sensitivity to the moods of the public and some capacity to sway the feelings of the masses.

~LEO on the Midheaven~

The nobility of the Soul is the cause and effect here. The conscious consideration is the will to succeed that is fixed upon an outcome. The spiritual outlook, is to use self-awareness alchemically and to step out of the ego in order to accomplish creation and manifestation of Divine Will that will serve as legacy to be carried forward to future lives. This is the signature of a true spiritual leader focused on fulfillment of destiny. This is a sensitive and generous posit tied to cosmic law that all is one with creation yet there exists a strong emphasis on individual “being.” The individual can give generously with no expectation of reciprocity. Its essence has developed from the Cardinal Cancerian waters of flow and flux to the Fixed Fire of pure will. The result is a strong moral sense that abhors anything demeaning to dignity and respectability. It is not an easy transition yet where this psychic change is concerned, the leonine essence has a firm grasp on the concept of timing and uses its innate intuition as a tool. When the energetics are off kilter, hypersensitivity, excessive love of power, undignified dictatorial attitudes and unscrupulous behaviors derail the quest. This essence must guard against perfection for perfection’s sake which can lead to excessive much public scrutiny and dismissal. The results can be humanly devastating as fall from position and disgrace can ensue. This is spiritual path of destiny definitively tied to being the master of one’s own fate as a significant power within the unity of all that exists.

~VIRGO on the Midheaven~

A Soul of service with a revealing spirit is the essence of Virgo on the Midheaven. For all Virgos, life can be a paradox – principles often shaped by changeability and impeccability and exactness undone by self-critique. Direct simplicity is a blessing to this Soul when it can overcome the propensity for multiple shifts of viewpoint. In the mundane chart, this is the individual who can require less to get on with life yet the spiritual path requires that the individual also be able to serve unselfishly as a guide for others. Coming from the elemental Fixed Fire of Leo and transversing into the elemental Mutable Earth, an attitude of smugness laced with a desire for self-satisfaction based in fear of lack can derail the quest for service, for this is not a “take care of my needs first” lifetime which too much analysis can foster. The battle between the inner light of consciousness and the analytical conscious mind can only be settled through soul activity which is “other” oriented. Enlightenment in the form of discovering true knowledge of the inner self in relation to the divine infinite is the goal of all souls but is most profound with the Virgo posit. Along with its Piscean polarity, spiritually, the Virgo Midheaven represents a true servant of God whose creative consciousness is in tune with the Universal Mind. When spiritual destiny is being ignored, ill-fated partnerships that bring about instability, unkept agreements, lack of truth, poor communication and loss will occur.

~LIBRA on the Midheaven~

In the mundane chart, this is the position of social ambition prompted by strategic behavior and fostered by charm and wit however, the spiritual path is one of collective social consciousness, cooperation and the desire to heal and help. In many ways it is the position of a “natural counselor” who “inspires.” Inner knowledge is expressed equitably and gently often creating an environment of consideration, respect and caring. The spiritual path requires adaptability and perceptive awareness of encounters and situations in order to curb any impressionability which is a Venusian manifestation courtesy of its higher octave Neptune. Libra is the sign of balance and the transition from the Mutable elemental Earth of Virgo to active Cardinal Air means the intellect and the intuition must meld to keep equipoise. Too much reliance on the intellect means convenience based acquiescence with regards to others; too much reliance on the intuition fosters sympathetic indulgence which is not true compassion. This is the position of “choices” yet when the individual is detoured from the spiritual path, they somehow amazingly find the way back as self-awareness is developed. When the spiritual direction is ignored, accusations of insincerity can lead to mistrust by others.

~SCORPIO on the Midheaven~

The willpower is highly developed in the Soul with this posit. Farsighted, often clairvoyant and prophetic the Soul walks a spiritual path of adeptness. In the mundane chart, this can be the posit of true leadership but the spiritual path dictates that power and all of its human ramifications be used to reform and rehabilitate for Scorpionic power which is Plutonic in nature is projected outward to the world. This Soul recognizes its omnipotence but also knows that in the light of Collective essence it is still in its infancy. The human side of the Scorpio Midheaven knows the value of ambition but the spirit understands the basic truth of the human condition. The human side strives for transition but the spirit strives for transformation. Evolving from the Cardinal Air essence of the Libran high ground of intellectuality, the Fixed Water essence of Scorpio knows that self-awareness can only come from plunging into the depths of extreme positives and negatives and facilitating change on all levels. They will transverse the muck and mire of the most hidden parts of the psyche in order to understand first their own consciousness and then the Collective Consciousness in order to transmute the suffering of both themselves and others. When the path of spiritual destiny is not being followed, human tendencies to dictate, manipulate and oppress will result in crisis upon crisis leading to alienation and possible illicit activities.

~SAGITTARIUS on the Midheaven~

The dignity of the Soul is on the line with this placement. In the mundane chart, the concern is with honesty, ethics and benevolence but, not only does the individual aspire to becoming a “pillar of society” he/she must more importantly reflect propriety of spirit in order to fulfill Collective destiny. This is the sign of vision. The intuition leads the nature to the future and what must be accomplished to acquire enlightenment. The “truth” is always a matter of utmost importance and within the temple of Self this is the only voice that is heard. The spiritual essence is transitioning from the elemental Fixed Scorpionic waters to Mutable Fire moving on from transformation to aspiration filling each void from lower to higher. This posit carries the seed of the Collective Law of the Universe along with compassion and generosity for the world at large. Growth comes via each generous act along the way with no focus on “outcome.” The Soul takes its direction from understanding while utilizing action geared at service in “the moment” for through unlimited vision, the “truth” reveals everything is impermanent. Experience alone is considered real wealth as soon as the identification with material “things” is overcome. Loving wisdom is the result. When the path of destiny becomes derailed, hypocrisy and vainglory can lead to ruinous disgrace. In some cases the higher quest for truth will result in neglect and loss of intimate relations with friends and family because the loftier focus has become all important causing lack of equipoise in personal matters.

~CAPRICORN on the Midheaven~

Capricorn is the natural ruler of the 10th House and in the mundane chart, ambition rules the day. The human side of this posit is concerned with attainment of authority but the spiritual destiny requires moral integrity. As Saturn is the natural ruler of Capricorn and the 10th House, issues concerning Karma and accruing negative Karma can come from lack of principles. This is considered a grievous infraction of Universal Law. The spiritual essence has transitioned from the Sagittarian Mutable Fire of visionary truth to the Fixed Cardinal elemental which uses that vision to manifest good in a workable way on the physical plane. The Soul knows that what is accomplished from intelligent activity on the physical plane is also carried over to the spiritual realm and is “banked” throughout the current lifetime and for all other incarnations to come. There is much spiritual and emotional depth here although it may not show and can easily be denied. Yet is there being utilized on the many levels of Self. The spiritual path demands that the individual discover and embrace the role of servant to humanity. Anything manifested physically in life as productive outcome should, in some way, however grand or small serve the Collective Generation. When the path of spiritual destiny is being ignored, there will be a tendency to treat others as “objects” leading to actual abuse and the accruing of negative Karma. Hunger for power will result in difficult and unfavorable circumstances and disappointments. The mountain will be climbed with obstacles to overcome but it cannot be surmounted stepping on the backs of those who have been caused unnecessary suffering and cruelty in the name of ambition.

~AQUARIUS on the Midheaven~

When Aquarius occupies the 10th House cusp, Uranian innovation infuses technique leading to unique contribution to society. The Spiritual Path espouses the birthright to contribute something progressively original to the Collective generation. Ideals, ideas and insights are channeled into concrete manifestation. On the human level, a good deal of discontent can be expressed when there is inner disagreement about the state of the world. Much cause and effect can ensue as each bridge built is torn down and rebuilt into something better. There is an inborn need and desire to benefit “the many” that is not evident in the other sign placements who learn it through the trials and errors of life. Prioritizing the input of knowledge is key for this path. So, the work becomes the mastery of awareness followed by willingness to resist judging too quickly and discarding what may be not only pertinent but may also house future potential. The spiritual essence has transitioned from the elemental Cardinal Earth of Capricorn to the Airy Fixed elemental which requires tactical effective action to develop what is perceived. Awareness comes first from contact with the world which further stretches and develops the mind and then from the ensuing flashes of intuition fostered by such experiences. This is an ongoing process throughout life. When the Path of Spiritual Destiny is being ignored, too much strong will leads to difficulties in getting along with others and loss of cooperation. There are also problems with authority figures. Sudden rises to “fame” followed by devastating fall and possible obscurity are also possible.

~PISCES on the Midheaven~

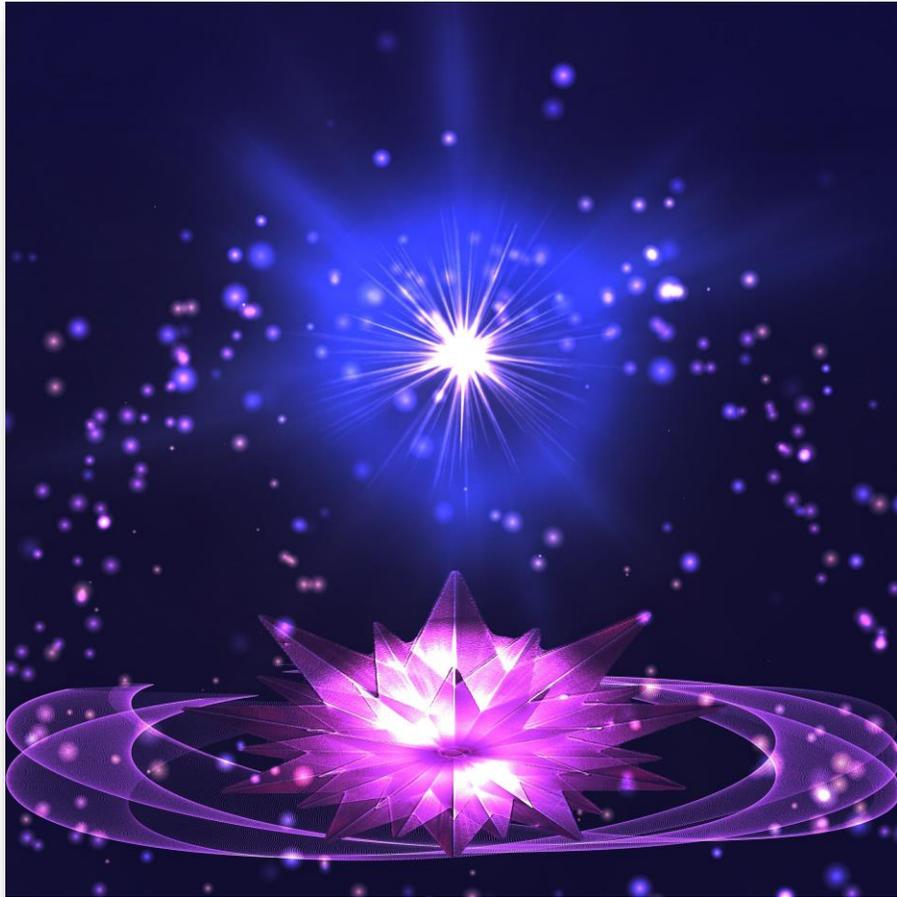

The OMEGA sign tends to inconstancy mainly because the ego consciousness is synonymous with all that is instinctual. In the mundane chart, this position of many faces ranges from public adoration to Christ-like redeemer to scandalous cur. Yet despite this, the Neptunian influences imbuing this sign tend to be the greatest Soul teachers. In the mundane chart, this position indicates one who learns about the “Self” via psychic information. This is the sign of compassionate awareness of both the Self and others. Yet the Soul requires an awareness of polarities be developed which will drive its human vehicle through the muck and mire of negativity in order for the spiritual mindset to achieve clarity. The spiritual essence has transitioned from the elemental Fixed Air of Aquarius to the elemental Mutable Waters of Pisces – the Omega process which is the foundation of the new beginning of the Alpha sign Aries ... intellect to clairvoyance to perception. The Spiritual Path of Destiny does not require calm waters but rather turbulent ones bringing the sacrifice of self-achieved through life experiences, to a rebirth of new compassion where the will can be mobilized directing personal power into the service of mankind bringing enlightenment to others. When the Spiritual Path of Destiny is ignored impracticality concerning the mundane path and its responsibilities, scandal, dishonesty and loss of reputation can occur. The Soul truly suffers from the lack of honor and the breaking of Universal Law.

CRYSTALS AND THE HIGHER REALMS

The Chronos Principle

In Crystology (the blend of astrological knowledge with crystal properties), the planet Saturn and its sign Capricorn rule all crystals, minerals, and stones and their geometric constitutions and properties. This makes perfect sense since Saturn and Capricorn have jurisdiction over solid forms and structures. Saturn or Chronos as he was known in ancient circles is generally known as the great task master whose lessons are laced with stern resolve which is why many people fear its significance in an astrological reading. A closer look at Saturn also reveals the Lord of Karma and the Teacher of Higher Truths so within the energy of Saturn is a link to the past and to the higher realms. The sign of Capricorn also has another face. Aside from the image of ambition driven ladder climbing, Capricorn is also the sign of the Great Mystic... one whose vision extends 'beyond time' and the natural world into the higher realms and the as yet undiscovered territories of the inter-dimensional and extraterrestrial. This includes the concept of simultaneous time or non-time known as the Chronos Principle.

The proper use of crystals and minerals can be of assistance when trying to tap into the inner and outer worldly. It should always be remembered that that such attempts should be tempered with respect and engaged with intent for healing. Full protection should be secured before each venture and one should be fully cognizant and hold reverence for Universal Order as deemed by the Divine Law of God or Spirit. Here are some tips when using crystals to tap within and without and beyond space and time...

PAST LIFE RECALL

Recall occurs when the conscious personality is made ready to view the past and bring old occurrences to the surface where they can be dealt with under the auspices of 'new wisdom' which promotes current life healing. Delving into the past can be traumatizing and the release of residual energies often painful. For these reasons, it is generally recommended that this exercise should not be attempted without assistance from someone who is willing to act as a guide or grounder.

Cuprite can be useful in the recognition and release of energetic residual surrounding difficulties with authority or authority figures that are reoccurring in the present life as repetitious patterns of anti-social behaviors. Brown Jasper can aid this process by helping to remove any stumbling blocks connected to difficult behavioral patterns. The stone or crystal is placed on the third eye chakra for this exercise.

Carnelian can be used to help one gain access to the actual historical events surrounding or connected to a past lifetime. It is a great aid to those who may have a glimpse of a past life but need more detail to fill in the scenario. If you are interested in accessing and retrieving ancient knowledge connected to such a past lifetime or accumulated knowledge from many past lifetimes, the stone Serpentine is very useful for this task. Again, place the crystal or stone on the third eye for the best results.

Garnet and Variscite aid dream state recall of past life memories so if you are an individual who prefers to receive information unconsciously this can be achieved by placing either of these stones under your pillow when you go to sleep. Be sure to make a conscious intention to receive information before you go to sleep. If you are an individual who is self-trained to wake up from a dream state and write down information, be sure to remember to put a pad and pencil bedside!

EXTRATERRESTRIAL OR INTER-DIMENSIONAL TAP IN

The most powerful stone for this exercise is Moldavite. Moldavite is believed by many to be extraterrestrial in origin... not Earth born but Earth bound. By nature, Moldavite has the capacity to tune into very high modulations and wider vibrational frequencies. For this reason, certain individuals are extremely sensitive to Moldavite and cannot work with it for extended periods of time because of system overload. Use caution with this very powerful stone if placing it on the third eye. An alternative method is to simply “sit with and focus on” the stone and write down your impressions.

ASCENDED MASTERS AND THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH

Working with the Ascended Masters seems to be a popular premise these days. According to some Theosophical thought, all of the Ascended Masters are tied to the Temple of Truth which holds information in accordance with the Divine Law of God. To gain understanding of your personal destiny and life purpose according to the Ultimate Truth use Peridot... the greener the better! Peridot is known as one of the Stones of Vision so by all means – place it on the third eye chakra.

ANGELIC REALMS

I talk to many people who love working with the angels from Guardian Angels to the Archangels. The entire angelic realm is a very special and powerful force of beings that are always there to assist humankind. Some people ask for guidance or protection while others desire direct angelic contact. All of the following stones should be considered gateways to the angelic realm. They should either be held lovingly with both hands during times of contemplation or meditation or placed under your pillow when you go to sleep.

Celestite also known as Angelite is the most favored stone for contact with the angelics. Messages may come in clairvoyantly or clairaudiently and are generally crystal clear!

Selenite is a very transcendent stone which brings crisp clarity to the mind so Divine Judgment can be received with wisdom.

Muscovite helps you see the ‘angelic’ in yourself and in others so you can give and receive love through higher guidance.

PERSONAL INSIGHT

If you prefer not to venture out into the unknown, here are some stones and crystals that will help you ‘amp up’ your personal vibration:

Labradorite – clears spiritual confusion and elevates consciousness while protecting the aura.

Lapis Lazuli – brings enlightenment according to the personal stage of Soul Evolution.

Azurite – enhances psychic ability and intuition.

Fluorite – opens the Crown Chakra creating a link from the physical to the spiritual... “As above, so below” and increases the ability to attain higher levels of reality. Be sure to share your revelations with others!

Turquoise – brings clarity to the ‘real you’ and your current life path.

Herkimer Diamond – if you are into ecology and caretaking of the planet this stone is for you! The Herkimer is one of the record keepers of the Earth’s DNA so working with this stone brings one closer to the concept of Universal Unity.

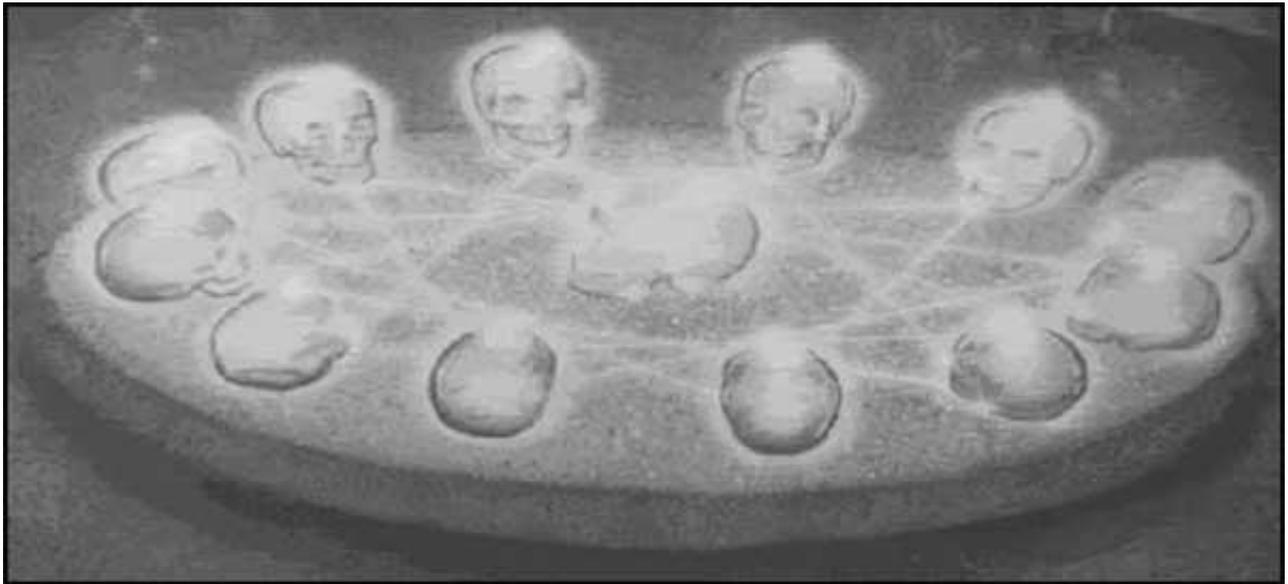

Quartz – helps dissolve ‘karmic seeds’ or residual habits from past lifetimes. It cleanses the aura and increases (doubles) the auric field while amplifying psychic ability. Females can use this successfully combined with Moonstone.

THE CRYSTAL SKULLS

By now most people have either seen or are familiar with the Indiana Jones extravaganza related to the Crystal Skulls. The movie takes us on a cosmic trip and the “unusual skull” that comes to the attention of Indie and his cohorts ends up as belonging to inter-dimensional beings who were ancient archeologists. In reality, the Crystal Skulls that currently exist may or may not have anything to do with this premise but they are a unique mystery that has still not been solved.

According to ancient Native American legend, there are 13 life size skulls made of solid crystal which have movable jaws and are able to “sing.” The skulls were allegedly left behind by ancient ancestors and are believed to be a great source of wisdom and knowledge holding the answers to the mysteries of the Universe, the true evolution of mankind and the real history of planet Earth. The prophesy surrounding the skulls further informs us that during a time of great crisis for humanity the skulls would all be rediscovered and brought together to reveal their knowledge thus saving the human race. The legend has been handed down by many tribes from the Mayan and Aztec descendants of Central America to the Navajo and Pueblo Indians of the south-western United States to the Cherokee and Seneca Indian of the north-eastern United States. The Cherokee version varies slightly and adds that there are twelve planets in the cosmos that are inhabited by beings and that there is a skull that represents each planet plus a thirteenth skull that ties them together. One of the greatest mysteries surrounding the skulls is how they were crafted as they bear no tools marks of any kind.

To date twelve skulls that have been discovered are considered to be authentic they are:

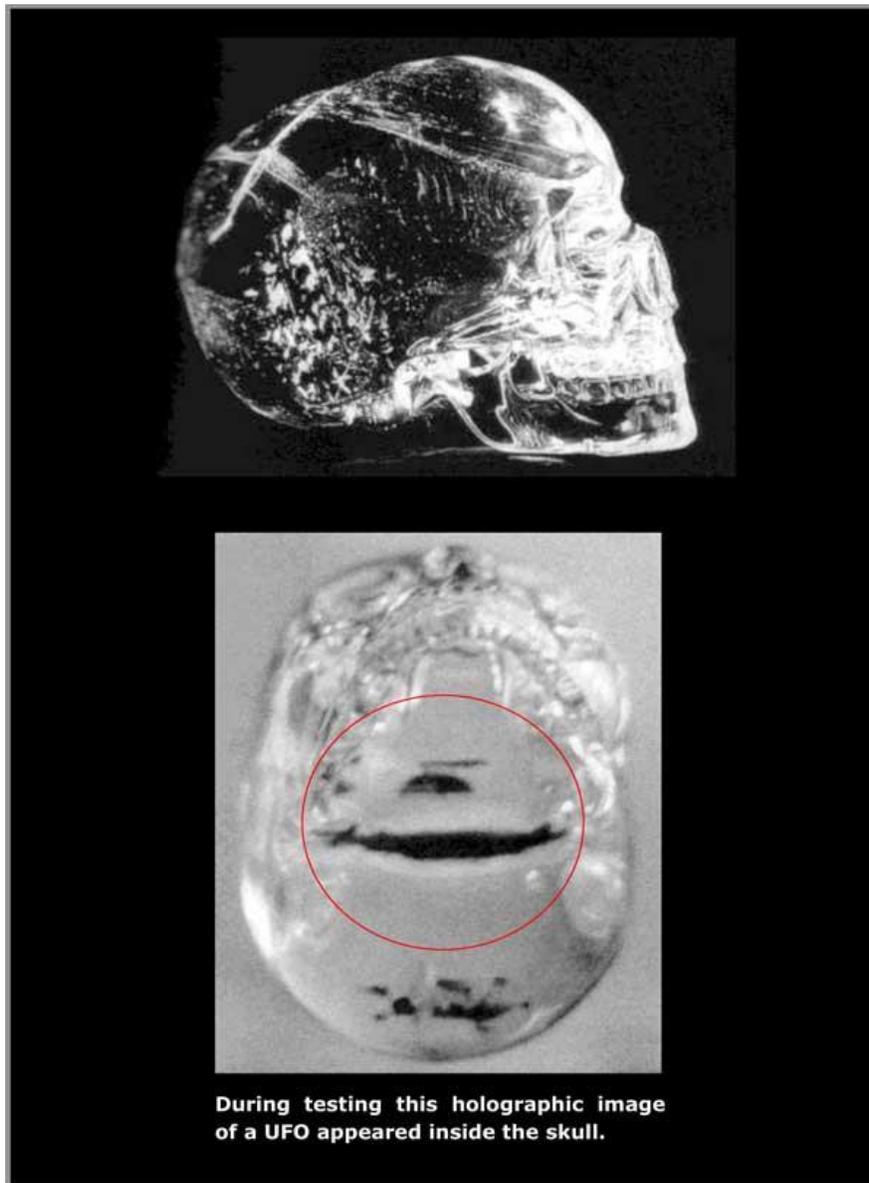

- Mitchell Hedges Skull
- Mayan Crystal Skull
- Amethyst Skull
- British Skull (British Museum)
- Paris Skull
- Texas Crystal Skull (MAX) (owned by the Parks Family of Houston)
- ET Skull (private collection of Joke van Dieten Maasland in Miami Beach, Florida)
- Rose Quartz Crystal Skull (last seen in Honduras and Guatemala)
- Aztec Skull
- Sha-na-ra
- Jaguar Man
- The Rainbow Skull (These three were recently found in an excavation in Guerro Province and are now privately owned)

Probably the most famous of the skulls is the Mitchell Hedges Skull discovered in the 1920's. It is crafted of solid quartz crystal and has undergone many scientific tests most recently by the Hewlett-Packard crystal laboratories. Natural quartz is specifically a product of Mother Nature sometimes taking billions of years to form. At the heart of the process is a "seed" which is formed when a single silicon atom under intense pressure and heat fuses with two oxygen atoms from intensely heated water or steam trapped in the same space under the earth. When the conditions are perfect and stable the cell seed begins to replicate itself laying down a complex crystalline structure that eventually builds into a three dimensional lattice that displays geometric regularity. A perfect piece of natural quartz is not common due to other natural factors that cause discoloration or inclusions. This raises skepticism amongst the scientific communities about the age of the skulls since perfect quartz is more likely to be laboratory grown/manmade. There has been much controversy regarding the authenticity of the skulls since it is not possible to date them with any clarity. The British Museum which has conducted much testing made the following statement:

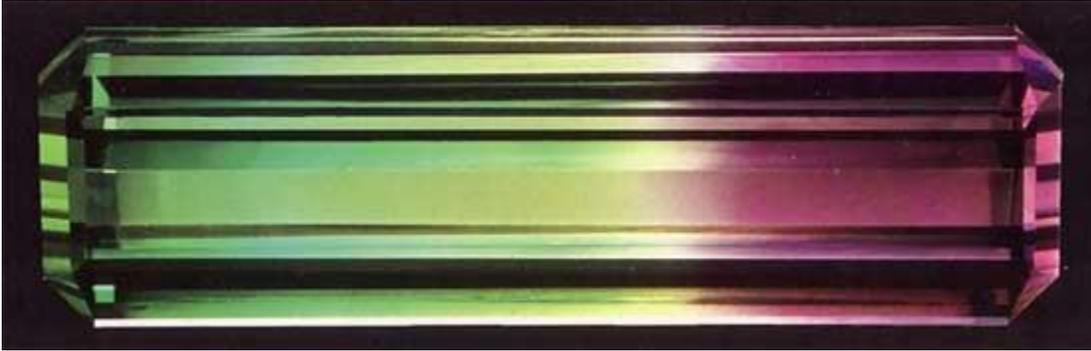

"Contrary to popular belief there are currently no scientific techniques which can be used to accurately establish when a stone or mineral object was produced. Research has therefore focused on how the skulls were carved, where the quartz originated from and what is known about the early history of the skulls."

Metaphysicians know that quartz is piezo-electric and that crystal cells can transmit radio-like waves through the nervous system to the brain where information can be unscrambled. So, if the Crystal Skulls do in fact carry some ancient wisdom and knowledge then reception of that knowledge by humans would naturally be telepathic in nature. If they are a true source that can tap into the collective consciousness then most likely a Universal communication network would come into play when all thirteen skulls come together. From what source is this information generated and who put it there? While you are considering the possibilities check out these photos of the Mitchell-Hedges Skull...

Crystals and Master Numbers

Numerologists believe that every name vibrates and is dynamic in its vitality. Numerological vibrations are also present in names of crystals and minerals and are copacetic with the natural vibrations of all stones.

Master Number 11:

The Master Number 11 is androgynous by nature combining both male and female energies into one spiritual, equal and collective fraternity where the I/you mirror reflection is eternal. This is an easy visual for the number eleven consists of two number “1’s” standing side by side, equal yet opposite one another and unlike the other Master Numbers singular by numeric intent.

The vibration of Master Number 11 is found in Jade. Jade is readily used by the signs Aries, Taurus, Gemini, and Libra. If Master Number 11 applies to your personal numerology Jade will act very powerfully on your behalf if it is worn or carried.

Master Number 22:

The Master Number 22 promotes realization. It connects the individual with an understanding of that which constitutes the “Self” in combination with that which is “Divine” or “God” as a “whole.” The Master Number 22 is associated with the theory of parallel dimensions and the arcane connotation connected to crossroads. It is also associated with the four cardinal directions of Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn.

The vibration of Master Number 22 is found in the following stones/crystals. The astrological associations are listed next to each item:

Albite – Aquarius

Coral – Pisces

Galena – Capricorn

Master Number 33:

Timing is the gift of Master number 33. Being able to facilitate the correct time for physical accomplishment requires the employment of contemplation, patience and the wisdom of non-action when necessary. For these reasons, 33 also has a resonance with the rune Thurisaz which provides clarity as each of us stands at a particular “gateway” of life, ready to make a decision only after consideration of how our past deeds and trials have led us to a current impasse.

The vibration of Master Number 33 is found in the stones/crystals of the following list:

Bavenite – Libra

Cobaltite – Leo

Black Coral – Scorpio, Capricorn

Diamond – Aries, Taurus, Leo

Hanksite – Taurus

Ilvaite – Cancer

Semanite – Scorpio

Stilbite – Aries

Tsumebite – Gemini

Ulexite – Gemini

Master Number 44:

Transformation or metamorphosis is supported by the 44 catalytic vibration. Master Number 44 has somewhat of a plutonian essence calling upon all of us to accept the ebb and flow of never ending changes that ultimately determine the transmutation of the “Self.” Number 44 eases the traumas and dramas surrounding such acceleration.

The vibration of Master Number 44 is found among:

Iris Agate – Sagittarius

Ceruleite – Taurus

Cryolite – Gemini

Domeykite – Scorpio

Goethite – Aries

Hausmannite – Virgo

Linnaeite – Leo

Mottramite – Gemini

Oligoclase – Gemini

Orthoclase – Cancer

Proustite – Aquarius, Leo

Rhonite – Scorpio

Siderite – Aquarius

Xonotlite – Leo

Master Number 55:

The Master Number 55 deals with “strategy.” Within this vibration is found advanced knowledge that facilitates each life experience by providing precision of forethought resulting in constructive manifestation.

The Master Number 55 vibration has many stone/crystal correlations:

Antigorite – Taurus

Babingtonite – Gemini

Blue Tourmaline - Libra

Chrysotile (Chrsyolite) – Taurus

Descloizite – Taurus

Eckermannite - Virgo

Ettringite - Gemini

Genthelvite - Sagittarius

Gismondine - Pisces

Jeremejevite - Gemini

Kammererite – Virgo Pisces

Koksharovite – Gemini, Libra

Larimar – Leo

Libenthenite –Virgo

Mineral stone – Libra

Pecos Diamond -Libra

Phlogopit - Cancer

Pumpellyite- Leo

Red Obsidian - Leo

Thunderegg - Scorpio

Master Number 66:

“As above – So below” is the vibrational theme of Master Number 66. Within its essence lies the synthesis of Earth to the Universe and the intervention of Divine Order in one’s life. Celestial assistance is made available so that Order is sustained through systemic resolution.

The Master Number 66 resonates with the following:

Hedenbergite – Virgo

Ruby in Kyanite – Gemini

Master Number 77:

The keywords for Master Number 77 are stamina and transcendence. Number 77 encompasses the “whole” with reference to Earth, the Universe, and all the dimensions. Creativity of the “whole” comes to full fruition on each individual level and is reflected in entirety each to the other.

The Master Number 77 is associated with the following:

Chlorocalcite (Hydrophilite) - Aquarius

Fourmarierite – Capricorn

Petrified Wood – Leo

Purple Fluorite – Capricorn, Pisces

Master Number 88:

Evolution is nigh under Master Number 88. Transcendental consciousness, intuition, and clairvoyance are key under this compassionate vibration. When one works under this Master vibration, psychic capabilities become unlimited and unrestricted making personal revelation possible. Sensitivity and charity are also heightened under this vibration.

The Master Number 88 vibration can be found among the following stones/crystals:

Pharmocosiderite – Capricorn

Faden Quartz – Scorpio

Master Number 99:

Everyone knows that historically the number 9 is a magical number. There are in fact nine Master Numbers. The Master Number 99 relates to the Path traveled and the sense of completion associated with past actions, acknowledgment of the reality of present actions, and the cognizance of the effect of future actions. That which “was”, “is”, and “will be” all combine with total acceptance as the highest transcendental vibration.

The last of the Master Numbers 99 like the first of the Master Numbers 11 relates to one stone/gem:

Pink Tourmaline - Libra

CAPRICORNUS

“Of you Capricorn I ask the toil of your brow, that you might teach men to work. Your task is not an easy one for you will feel all of man’s labors on your shoulders, but for the yoke of your burdens I put the Responsibility of man in your hands.”

~Martin Schulman in Allegory~

Lost am I in Light supernal, yet on that Light I turn my back...

Every sign of the Zodiac is in you. Even though you may not be a Capricorn, on the personal level you may have Capricorn ascending, OR a Capricorn Moon or Node, OR a planet/planets in Capricorn. At the very least, you’ll have a House cusp or cusps in Capricorn or perhaps Capricorn intercepted in another House. Certainly Capricorn's ruler Saturn sits somewhere in your chart keeping a record of your growth and doling out awareness to life circumstances that need attention. You simply cannot avoid it. It's in there somewhere. Why is this important? Perhaps because Capricorn is one of the most misunderstood Zodiacal energies but more importantly because it packs a spiritual wallop wherever it shows up.

Within the symbolism of Capricorn are some of the most profound mysteries of life for Capricorn is the Light of Initiation –the illumination that clears the path, transfigures and reveals. The energy of Capricorn links the Divine Creative Will with the Human Mind which in turn produces structured form on the physical plane. Through Capricorn and its ruling planet Saturn, order and structure are provided allowing the Laws of Manifestation to work and therefore propelling the Plan of Evolution into objective existence.

Capricorn is the smallest, least conspicuous and one of the oldest of the twelve traditional zodiacal constellations. It covers approximately 1.003 % of the sky and has 31 visible stars. Its roots are lodged in the antiquity of prehistory and it was always regarded as a sacred sign. The Babylonians knew Capricorn as Suhur.mas (Goat-Fish); the Greeks as Aigokeros (goat-horned); the Indians in Sanskrit as Makara (sea-monster) and in early Hindu Makaran (antelope but also depicted as a goat's head on the body of a hippopotamus); the Jews as Azazel (scape-goat who bathes away the sins of Earth with snow, rain and storms); the Chinese Mo Ki (goat-fish); the Iranians as Vahik (goat-fish: the Romans as capercornu (goat-horn) and the god Pan; the Egyptians as Chnum (god of the waters AND the Denderah Zodiac pictures Capricorn as a man with the head of Ibis riding a mountain goat) and the early Christians as the as the apostle Simon Zelotes. Capricorn is the zodiacal guardian of time and space and the energy of limits, rules and regulations that must be observed in order that stability and endurance continue to foster “growth.” In mundane astrology it is represented by two variations of the same animal – a mountain goat and a Seagoat. The Seagoat is a mythological figure representative of the esoteric nature of Capricorn. The highest manifestation of Capricorn is the ethereal Unicorn representing transcendence.

Dual Nature of Capricorn

GOAT = Spiritual Development ... FISH = Infinite Potential

A lithograph after bass relief of Oannes the Assyrian mythical half-fish half-man teacher of wisdom to the Babylonians. Oannes dual nature linked the worlds of spirit and matter the archetype of Capricorn.

As the sign of Initiation, hierarchical Capricorn serves as the Gateway of Death through which only the accepted disciple may pass after having walked the Path of Life. This includes physical death and also death as a result of change and application. As odious as this sounds, one must remember that this is tied to the evolutionary process of the Soul and cannot be avoided. Through Saturn's custodial rulership, Saturnine urges produce Soul character purified in change through spiritualized environment. It should always be remembered that perfecting the Soul is what life is all about.

~The Three Capricornian Forms~

~Primary Initiations~

~Immortal Trinity~

“Capricorn as the Mountain Goat”

(Attached to Form)

Immortal Trinity: Atmic Shield and Center of the Will

Encased by structure, prisoner of form, Earthbound

Initiation: All life and all people are one wholistic Earth family. The Soul Presence is recognized as being anchored in the life of the personality.

Form: COAL

Many times over we place our dreams and ambitions on material forms. Early in our evolution of Soul we are somehow instinctively attached. We amass. We sacrifice to win. We become stuck until the earth quakes and all that was familiar is lost. If we view this karmically we accept that this is the way of all things.

“Capricorn as the Mergoat”

(Relating Through Form)

Immortal Trinity: Buddhic Shield and Wisdom

Relating energy to form, objectifying purpose, anchoring ideas to Earth

Initiation: Dominance of Love over astral body desires which are placed under the aegis of the Soul.

Form: CRYSTAL

As the Earth quakes and what is familiar is continually and cyclically dissolved, we learn and understand the limitations of egocentric ambitions. We become more Soul infused seeing these limitations as guidelines for a higher expression of life. We become aware of the hidden spiritual essence and value in all forms. We are now willing to take responsibility that will be of benefit to others as a Collective Whole.

“Capricorn as the Unicorn”

(Free to Transform and Transfigure)

Immortal Trinity: Manas and Upper mental center (countless levels of integrated consciousness)

Culminating purpose, server of Earth

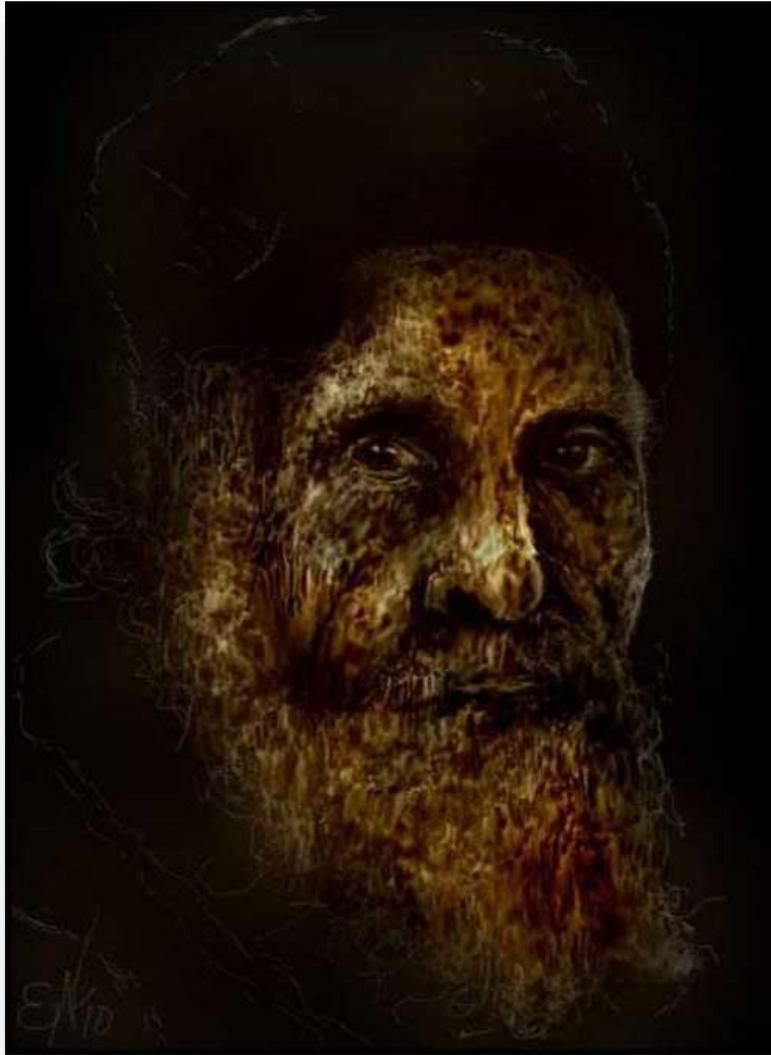

Initiation: Becoming totally mentally polarized, linking talents and abilities to Collective Purpose

Form: Diamond

We are now at the threshold ready to begin a new cycle of becoming on the evolutionary wheel. Capricorn has literally become the Gate of Death or the Passage out of Incarnation and onto the immortal path of the True Initiate. We have synthesized higher development. There is a new form for the externalization of the Divine Plan.

The Saturnian Archetype

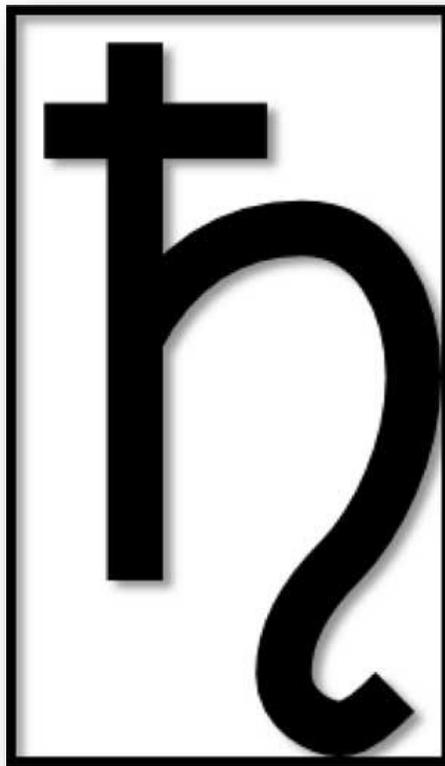

Ah Saturn! Ruler of Capricorn and Ancient Ruler of Aquarius. Saturn by archetype is known by many names - Lord of Karma, Father Time, The Great Taskmaster, Guardian of the Solar System, The Olde Devil, The Reaper, The Old Man, The Parent Principle and general all round authoritarian pain in the butt. Saturn doesn't seem to have a good relationship with the media and its energy be it astrological or astronomical is connected to all sorts of malice and occult weirdness. What is the archetype of Saturn really about? It's quite simple really. Under Saturn's auspicious influence an individual's character and mettle are strengthened through life trial and difficulty. Saturn disciplines all of us until we finally learn to discipline ourselves.

As the celestial taskmaster, Saturn works within the grand plan of the Universe and never dishes out more than we can actually handle. Under Saturn's guidance, achievement is reached by overcoming obstacles and hardship. We carry our burdens and we are rewarded for our efforts. Saturn grants us the power to persevere and realize potential. Wherever it is posited in a Natus, whichever sign it is working through and whatever aspects it makes and receives indicates how well responsibility is accepted, how the capacity for discipline is displayed and how the ability for reliability, patience and trustworthiness is shown.

In many of the old texts, Saturn is referred to as the Great Malefic. Its glyph reveals an important aspect of terrestrial life which is the Law of Limitation. Saturn is both a teacher and a tester. As the tester Saturn's role has been likened to Satan who tempts the egocentric personality to trade the liberation of the Soul for temporal powers and meaningless material possessions. As the great teacher and ruler of time, Saturn instructs us that in the end we all lose at the moment of physical death no matter what the Earth accomplishments have been. However he who passes Saturn's earthly tests will be helped along the Path of Light guided by Saturn's fatherly hand.

In some schools of esotericism, Saturn is believed to have been the first planetary body to be constructed - the first planet of the seven Planetary Logoi and was thus considered the "Elder One." In other occult theories, Saturn is thought to be the "Keeper of Records" who records all impressions of energy made on the Akashic ethers from the physical plane. As the "Testing Angel," Saturn is still believed to govern all souls trained in the Mystery Schools. Hinduism associates Saturn with Shiva the Destroyer and the death of form which precludes the liberation of spirit and ensures rebirth. In Sacred Cosmobiology, Saturn is the Sacred Planet of the Third Ray of Active Intelligence where man is required to understand the reason behind his being and use this abstract and philosophical thinking to drive himself forward in the evolutionary sense ... he is willing to be what he is through what life offers by way of experience. Any progress made is for evolutionary purposes.

In its most highly symbolic form, Saturn is our destiny and all that constitutes fate and those things which cannot be escaped. Payback can be a real bitch. Yet how else are we to attain self-mastery in life without the structured laws of the physical plane which Saturn provides? Saturn furnishes our spiritual life force with the vehicles for material expression by providing the spirit with a suitable shell to ensoul. It must be remembered that the Earth is the playground for the forces of Light and Dark and Saturn will liaise between the two. We all have a choice as we pass through Saturn's doors to go one way or the other.

Saturn is keeping score.

The Cosmobiological Capricorn

~Sun in Capricorn~

The individual with the Sun in Capricorn will be motivated to create a physical representation of his/her identity. Within the early years of life to middle age this approach will manifest as focus entirely on the physical plane and the realm of Capricorn the Mountain Goat. It is a work of art in progress like the sculptor who has a block of marble and a chisel but no clear idea of what he wants to sculpt. In the end, the final product will be beautiful but work related to the actual sculpting will be long, arduous, confusing and interrupted by failures. The sense of self has been based upon accomplishments with an unerring activism to achieve. Once this part of the path has been either satisfied or torn asunder by outside forces, then the path of the Mergoat becomes clear and the mental and spiritual shift becomes polarized and the quest becomes more visionary and collective oriented. In the later years if culmination is reached and higher development synthesized the path of the Unicorn opens the understanding of the Divine Plan and Will. Upon mortal death the individual Soul makes passage out of the current incarnation having attained a step of evolution as a true initiate.

Degrees of the Sun (please round up > i.e. 0 degrees 1 minute becomes 1 degree; 29 degrees 30 minutes becomes 30 degrees etc.):

Note: Capricorn is peregrine in the first twenty degrees of the sign so ego motivation is based upon physical material results

FIRST DECANATE

1 degree - Intuitive but loving argument as a means to adding to the store of personal knowledge.

2 degrees - Full of power and purpose - a possible climb to eminence. Friends may conspire to dethrone.

3 degrees - A natural teacher who can make matters of the spirit clear yet who may waver between temporal and spiritual gain resulting in self-betrayal.

4 degrees - Great power of endurance through which either ill or good gain can be achieved.

5 degrees - Designing and controlling. Others may be used for personal gain.

6 degrees - A leader gifted concerning tact and sympathy yet fails to hold followers which incites depression and hindrance.

7 degrees - Selfish, eccentric, domineering.

8 degrees - Tendency to judge others by the self and too affected by the external.

9 degrees - Able to sway others by use of inspirational power. If a writer, works will live on many years after death.

10 degrees - A nurturer and protector of others and one who fights for principles.

SECOND DECANATE

11 degrees - One who uses others as stepping stones and then discards them. Materialistic and grasping yet may not appear to be so.

12 degrees - Courage of convictions makes for a magnetic leader. Also inclined towards sensuous pleasures.

13 degrees - Interest in sexual matters yet able to avoid scandal.

14 degrees - Clever in endeavor of life yet inclined to be negative and to take life too easily.

15 degrees - One who can discover many things of benefit for the human race yet fails to receive deserved recognition.

16 degrees - Intuitive, sensitive, practical and possibly artistic. Plans are matured before attempting execution.

17 degrees - Judgmental yet sympathetic to the plight of the masses of humanity.

18 degrees - Too easily influenced by others to own detriment. Must choose friends wisely.

19 degrees - Enterprising, determined, forceful but too stubborn for own best interests.

20 degrees - The presence is soothing and healing.

THIRD DECANATE:

21 degrees - Sensitive, impressionable and always seeking knowledge. May receive help from influential friends.

22 degrees - A complex person whose sense predominate. Can be a power for peace.

23 degrees - A student of the inner mysteries. Has a practical side but is also a lover of art and poetry which assists in elevation from sphere of birth.

24 degrees - One who seeks knowledge that may scientifically relieve the ills of mankind.

25 - Conservative and a lover of ritual and ceremony. Diplomatic and crafty.

26 -Much sympathy for suffering and a defender of the defenseless. Often arouses enmity but overcomes opposition.

27 - A prophet who clearly sees coming events. Thoughtful, patient, kind in every department of life.

28 degrees - One who must plan and stick with it. Advancement through perseverance and persistence.

29 degrees - Quiet, retiring and contemplative. Keynote of philosophy is. "Given the same conditions the same results are likely to recur."

30 degrees - One who must obey the law to the letter as loss may occur through failure or verbal agreements.

~Moon in Capricorn~

The Moon is not in a favorable position in Capricorn and is considered in detriment. The nature is reserved, serious, cautious and austere. Hard working and ambitious there will most likely be some personal bias concerning status and security. In the worst case scenario, calculating tendencies to achieve power at any cost without respect for the feelings of others is evident.

People with the Moon in Capricorn must always overcome obstacles and complexities within their own natures to find the happiness they seek. This Lunar influence connects with the mind urging an eagerness to learn. Determination can turn into obsession if energies are all focused single-minded in one direction when manifesting hopes and dreams. The term "still waters run deep" applies here. Despite charming social manners it may be difficult to express deep feelings and unknown to close intimates, Capricorn Moons can suffer from feelings of loneliness. This is often concealed by a dry sense of humor. True love is not often found in youth.

For those with the Sun in an Earth sign, Taurus, Virgo or Capricorn, the Capricorn Moon underlies talent and ability to achieve; Water sign Suns Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces get a boost of dynamism to innate creativity and these couplings provide excellent energy for attracting wealth or fame; Air signs Gemini, Libra and Aquarius sign Suns get a boost of strength and intensity to resourcefulness and Fire sign Suns Aries, Leo and Sagittarius are infused with a special gift for self-reliance, authority while a potent dose of mesmerizing charm is added to the overall personality.

"Capricorn doesn't want to rely on anyone else, because that would mean being let down or humiliated at the critical moment. For Capricorn, survival depends on self-sufficiency. Showing emotional need is a form of dependency, so it's blocked or moderated by the defense mechanism. Responding on cue to someone else's emotional demands may also make the Capricorn feel dominated and controlled. The message is, "I'll show love when I want to, not when you want me to. I'm in charge of my own feelings, and I will decide when and how to express them."
~ Liz Greene

~Ascendant (Rising Sign) in Capricorn~

Capricorn rising grants a strong determined personality. Cautious in personal affairs the outside belies the inside until a sense of security and comfort is reached. When that happens the phrase, "to know Capricorn is to love him," becomes apropos. Reliability and dependability go hand in hand with might and willpower. The mind is active and able to ferret out information with ease. There is a tendency to be a bit too detail oriented and also a tendency for unnecessary worry. This is just the Capricorn way for being in control because no matter how good life may be going there is always a little voice saying, "Is it good enough?"

"Capricorn's real place is out on the world's stage, moving things in the environment - little or small - so that he leaves the place a little better organized than when he found it. His gifts lie in the realm of organization and control, discipline and initiation of changes within already existing structures. He's often more idealist than you'd expect, in that he may have a vision of how to improve the world, or the small corner of the world he inhabits. Mystical he isn't, and his ideals are always attainable ones. He makes sure of that and usually also makes sure he has the resources and skills to achieve them in his lifetime. He won't sit idly by and let others bring to birth his vision; he hates to delegate responsibility, and usually believes he must do it himself." ~ Liz Greene

~Planets in Capricorn~

(Mercury-Pluto)

Planets within 0-10 degrees of Capricorn:

Commitment to Knowledge

Planets in these degrees will be infused with seriousness, responsibility, precision and orderliness, relentlessness and determination. Planetary tendencies will be both subtle and aggressive and aroused by passion. A quiet force is added to the planetary energies that is magnetic and attention getting. Whichever planet is touched by Capricorn within these degrees an air of independence will be added to the normal qualities of that planet.

Planets within 10-20 degrees of Capricorn:

Commitment to Harmony

Planets in these degrees will be infused with serenity, creativity, and persistence. The "need to do and not waste time" becomes prevalent in whatever the particular planet represents energetically. Deep emotionalism that is unspoken may also be evident.

Planets within 20-30 degrees of Capricorn:

Commitment to Observation and Intuition

Planets in these degrees will be infused with mental energy, flexibility, adaption, honesty, respect and great spirituality. All activities connected to these planets will reach completion. Idealism will fuel the motivation of these planets. Any inner needs indicated by the planetary energies will be fulfilled despite struggles.

~Capricorn on the House Cusps~

House 1 - Discipline, patience and hard work - Everything has a purpose and is designed to achieve a practical manifestation. Health may have been delicate in early life but improved with age. Childhood may have been difficult and there may be a feeling of being "born as an old Soul." Very apt to age gracefully and not appear as old as actual years indicate.

House 2 - Great ambition and frugality concerning money and material goods. No funds are spent foolishly or capriciously. Everything must have lasting value. Financial success is possible but only through hard work. Inheritance may come from a paternal figure (if ruler Saturn is not afflicted).

House 3 - Thoughts are expressed carefully. Nothing is said or written without a definite reason for doing so. Words are selected for maximum impact and tend to be harsh and exacting. The early environment may not have been happy. True feelings may be hidden under a facade in attempts to avoid being misunderstood. There may be trouble with siblings or responsibility that must be taken for them at some point.

House 4 - Generally a strong interest in the home and domestics despite rigid or traditional upbringing. There is often a tendency to cling to home or mother too long. Great pride is taken in ancestry. There is a tendency to feel lonely at times despite being surrounded by family. There is a willingness to take care of family members personally and financially.

House 5 - More often than not highly sexed and lustful although a cool exterior in love is presented due to a fear of possible rejection. Good energy for teaching although the methodology may be stern. There is not a great desire to take risk with funds or speculate with money rather a desire for investment that brings tangible results.

House 6 - A good organizer and efficiency expert. Possible interest in working for the government or other large organization. A tendency to overcompensate can result in health issues. A dull or routine job is promised if ruler Saturn is afflicted.

House 7 - A mature life partner will be sought. The heart is never worn on the sleeve and often there is a suspicion of offered affection. Marriage may be delayed.

House 8 - Generally a long life is promised and rarely a sudden death. There is however a dread of growing old. Sexual matters are generally rather important and virility or seductiveness needs to be proven. Values will need adjusting depending on Saturn's aspects. Great courage is displayed in the face of adversity.

House 9 - Skeptical by nature but willing to be shown new things this placement often indicates somewhat of a legal mind. There generally is not a love of travel and possible suspicion of foreigners. Higher education may be delayed and is often earned through own efforts.

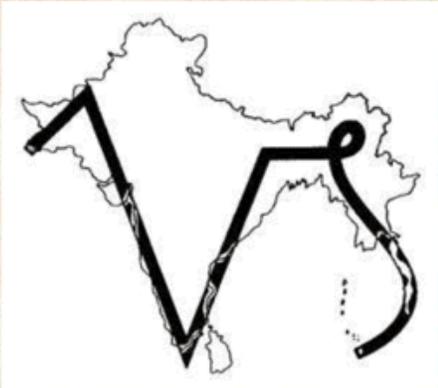

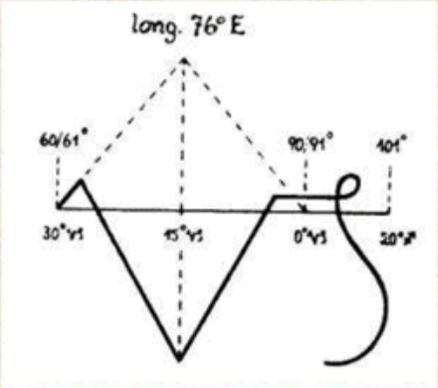

House 10 - Aiming high and seeking prestige and recognition in career is the name of the game. A parent may have been a strong motivating factor or force. Great perseverance is displayed in the game of life although a conservative manner is thought to be the way to go in protecting the reputation.

House 11 - More likely to have a few close friends than many acquaintances. Older people may play a significant role in life. Goals are achieved because there is no fear to put in the hard work in order to achieve them. There may be too much suspicion of others to engage joint ventures.

House 12 - Often a desire to work alone or in solitude. Selfishness may need to be overcome.

You may have lived in any of the following countries in a past life if you have Capricorn on the 12th House cusp: Afghanistan, Albania, Ancient Persia, Austria (Styria), Belgium, Bulgaria, Egypt (Port Said) Germany (Brandenburg, Constance, Hesse, Mecklenburg, Saxony), Greece (Morea), India*, Iran (Khorasan), Italy (Tortona), Lithuania, Macedonia, Mexico, New Zealand, Siberia, Tibet.

INDIA 's Occult Correspondence with the Capricorn Hieroglyph

As we pursue the cosmic harmonies to the planetary level we find that we are able to discover additional correspondences simply by overlaying the "map" of the heavens upon the earth. With the 360 degree Zodiac thus laid on the globe at the zero point of the Greenwich meridian, we observe that the sign Capricorn starts exactly where the Indian landmass begins. The sign's 30 degrees begin at 60/61 degrees East and continue to the mouth of the Ganges in the Bay of Bengal. The "tail" of the sign is carried over to encompass Burma, and from there swings back toward the central body. Through these cosmo-geographical correspondences we discover that India IS the sign Capricorn. In fact, one can readily "See" that the ancient hieroglyph forms an exact overlay of the Indian subcontinent. Its perfect alignment with this cardinal point identifies India as the "Soul of the Earth" and thus the point of the clearest spiritual vision.

"Caput Draconis"

The Head of the Dragon

"Cauda Draconis"

The Tail of the Dragon

The North Node or South Node in Capricorn

Capricorn North Node (Cancer South Node): The perennial infant learning how to achieve maturity and overcome past lifetimes of looking at life through rose colored glasses. There is much residual Soul memory of sensitive past life feelings which in the current life are still shattered by the slightest rejection. The main need here is to let go of those residual memories of what should have been done in past lives and to embrace and identify with an ideal bigger than the Self and the current personal life while accepting the full concept of adulthood. This is not the last incarnation on Earth and when the Soul reaches the Capricorn Gate of Death upon leaving the physical body, this lifetime will receive karmic judgment in the area of the life (house) where the Node is posited.

Capricorn South Node (Cancer North Node): The current lifetime has been entered carrying much inner pride. Respect is an issue and there are problems surrounding the lack of it in the current life since there was a great deal of it shown in the past lifetime. As a result there is an urge to try harder and prestige and the pursuit of dignity continue to be the motivators of all actions. The Soul worked very hard in past lifetimes for recognition. As a result, work in the current lifetime is made much harder than it need be. There is a definite need in the current lifetime to tolerate failure in the Self. It is easy to induce physical or emotional illness in order to avoid coping with situations in which there is expectancy to feel inadequate. The world is seen through an attitude of self-righteousness where the actions of others are condemned. Lifetimes of materialism now manifest as opportunism. Work must be done to drop these attitudes, relay emotions more honestly, apologize sincerely when wrong and not seek advantage over others when right for the highest achievement now in this life is to nurture others.